GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Fred Tatal has returned from another season of riding triumphs in Austria, Hungary and Germany. Tatal is as much pleased as ever with racing on the Continent, and will return there February 20, next year. He is under contract to Baron Utehrizt and Ander Von Pecky, partners in an extensive racing stable, while Baron Springer, the Austrian banker, has second call on his services. The stables for which he rides have over 100 horses in training during the racing season. Tatal's wife and his twelve-year son, John F., who spent the season abroad, returned with him. The youngster exercised horses during the season, and will ride next year. He weighs forty-eight pounds, and his fond father says he will make the best rider ever born in America.

William Fleischmann, who managed the stable of Julius Fleischmann, the Mayor of Cincinnati, sailed for Europe a few days ago. He had a successful season on the turf and cleared up $30,000. He was $45,000 ahead of the game, but lost $15,000 on Hurstbourne, his cousin's colt, in the White Plains Handicap. The defeat of this colt cost Jesse Lewisohn $25,000, but the loss of that large amount did not make the young copper king behind in his betting transactions for the year. This big commission was placed in the ring by two clubhouse messengers, C. Fellowes, Jr., son of the secretary of the Coney Island Jockey Club, and T. Kelly, a nephew of the senior member of the old firm of bookmakers, Kelly & Bliss.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The co-operative bookmaking, racing and breeding systems, of which Messrs. Arnold, Brolaski and Ryan are the leading exemplars, seem to be growing popular. Not less than three new St. Louis concerns engaged in that business this week.

Durnell & Herz have refused two offers of $20,000 made for McChesney. One offer came from C. R. Ellison, on his own behalf, and the other from Graham Rice, of Maxim & Gay, acting for a third party. Durnell & Herz fixed McChesney's price at $35,000, and there was nothing further doing.

James Robertson, owner of Sevoy, which raced in the east as Syrlin, has prepared an application to the Stewards of the Western Jockey Club, seeking the removal of the ban against his sprinter.

WASHINGTON FORM.

The form of Friday's Bannings fields is:

That's a big statement, but it is actually proven by the facts. It has no superior in the investment field, and may never have. It is an opportunity unparalleled, and as profitable (weekly) as any legitimate business enterprise (yearly). All are certain of their just proportion of profits under our system. The twenty dollar investor receives as much in percentage proportionately as the thousand dollar investor. By co-operating the funds of many and with years of experience in all lines of the business we expect to pay our customers a liberal dividend WEEKLY. We can do this because we absolutely know how. Winner—B. g. by Terrifier—Alexandra (trained by J. D. Hall, Jr.).
Went to post at 2:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second easily. Ivan was well handled throughout and showed a good performance. He lost ground at the jumps, but was fast in the sloppy mud and drew away from Arius in the last quarter. The latter forced the pace throughout, but weakened when caught. He is a good fencer. Cheval d'Or was a contender for nearly two miles, when he tired.

Scratched—36426 Draughtsman, 155; 36426 Woolgatherer, 147; 36426 Tireless, 147; 36312 Emigrant, 137.

Time, 6:27.
Winner—B. g. by Norwood—Gemima (trained by W. Garth).
Went to post at 3:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Imperialist had to be hard ridden in the last sixteenth to stall off Draughtsman. He fenced well and appeared an easy winner when a quarter from home, but tired. Draughtsman finished very strongly in deep going in the run through the stretch. Phillip fenced well, but found the route a trifle too far. Marylander was going strongly when he fell.

Scratched—(36312) Judge Phillips, 165; 36426 Woolgatherer, 150; 36353 Victor, 130.

Winner—B. c. by Charaxus—Ninone (trained by W. T. Baldwin).
Went to post at 3:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Circus has been steadily improving and showed ability to go a long route. He revelled in the mud, but had to be hard ridden in the last half mile to catch Carbuncle, was all out when he got up and was under the whip at the end. Andy Williams finished the strongest and was gaining at the end. He was interfered with on the turn out of the backstretch and would have won in a few more strides. Carbuncle tired in the final furlong when he had the race in hand and Rice went from a pull to a drive. The route was too far for Huntressa. Major Mansir was outclassed. Creamer had Moon Daisy under a pull all the way.

Scratched—36440 Arden, 110; 36394 Lady Potentilla, 107; 36429 Daisy, 167; 36378 Douro, 107; 363992 Cogs-well, 107; 36397 Coley, 107; (36399) Orontas, 107; 36398 The Huguenot, 107; 36396 Adelaide Prince, 101.

Time, 13:36; 2:26; 5:23 1/2; 1:20 1/2.
Winner—Ch. c. by Handspring—Listen (trained by A. L. Aste).
Went to post at 4:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Barkmore was easily the best, broke running and forced the pace all the way, easily drew away when a furlong from home and could have won farther off. Profitable closed up in the stretch under the whip and was tiring at the end. John Nevin made up a lot of ground, finished strongly and would have been second in another stride. Bernard found the pace too hot and quit. Michaelmas could not keep up and was eased up at the end.

Winner—Br. c. by Halma—Fashionable (trained by W. M. Barrick).
Went to post at 4:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Smart Set is very fit, handled his weight well and forced the pace throughout. He seemed beaten when a furlong from home, but responded gamely under the whip and came away again. Ben Howard finished very strongly on the outside of the track and was gaining at the end. Arrah Gowan was used up in the early racing, but held on gamely to the final sixteenth, when he weakened. His race was a good one. The weight was too much for Brunswick, but he was a contender to the stretch turn and was eased up at the end.

Milas ran well and stood a long final drive gamely, but was no match for the winner. Azarine was outclassed, but is in fine form and ran a good race. Halmetta closed a big gap from a bad start and finished like a flash. Matin Bell was closing up strongly at the end. Kickumbob retired after going a good half. Forte is not ready, but will improve and wants a longer race.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—La Plata (trained by G. W. Baldwin).
Went to post at 2:34. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Huachuca broke flatfooted and trailed to the stretch, where he moved up fast, taking the lead a furlong out, apparently an easy winner, but was driving hard at the end to beat Golden Light. The latter was always prominent, but lost ground in making a wide stretch turn, then closed up with a tremendous rush after a dilatory ride and was best today. Jarretiere d'Or displayed brilliant early speed, but failed to stay and should improve. Wolhurst, away slowly, closed a gap and wants a longer race. Golden Cottage quit after following the pacemaker for a half mile. Olintus is short, but looks grand.
Huachuca, show, 1 to 3. Golden Light, show, 2 to 5. Jarretiere d'Or, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—Ch. c. by Arkle—Kitty B. II. (trained by G. B. Morris).
Went to post at 3:03. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Durazzo got away running and made most of his advantage, forced the pace throughout, stood a long stretch drive gamely, is steadily improving and was best. Gold Bell, lucky and given a vigorous ride, was always in close contention and fought out the finish like a stayer. Polonius ran a game race. Went to post at 3:29. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Sad Sam is a quick breaker, obtained a winning advantage at the start, forced a terrific pace and was easing up right at the end. Irene Lindsey broke slowly, was under an unavailing drive from the start to get up and, tiring at the end, was all out to beat Princess Titania. The latter made a wide stretch turn and closed up very strongly. Meehanus, seriously interfered with at the half, could never get up. Bard Burns was outclassed.

Winner--B. g. by Terrifier--Alexandra (trained by J. D. Hall, Jr.).
Went to post at 2:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second easily. Ivan was well handled throughout and showed a good performance. He lost ground at the jumps, but was fast in the sloppy mud and drew away from Arius in the last quarter. The latter forced the pace throughout, but weakened when caught. He is a good fencer. Cheval d'Or was a contender for nearly two miles, when he tired.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Imperialist had to be hard ridden in the last sixteenth to stall off Draughtsman. He fenced well and appeared an easy winner when a quarter from home, but tired. Draughtsman finished very strongly in deep going in the run through the stretch. Montrip fenced well, but found the route a trifle too far. Marylander was going strongly when he fell.

Winner--B. c. by Charaxus--Ninone (trained by W. T. Baldwin).
Went to post at 3:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Circus has been steadily improving and showed ability to go a long route. He revelled in the mud, but had to be hard ridden in the last half mile to catch Carbuncle, was all out when he got up and was under the whip at the end. Andy Williams finished the strongest and was gaining at the end. He was interfered with on the turn out of the backstretch and would have won in a few more strides. Carbuncle tired in the final furlong when he had the race in hand and Rice went from a pull to a drive. The route was too far for Huntressa. Major Mansir was outclassed. Creamer had Moon Daisy under a pull all the way.

Went to post at 4:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Smart Set is very fit, handled his weight well and forced the pace throughout. He seemed beaten when a furlong from home, but responded gamely under the whip and came away again. Ben Howard finished very strongly on the outside of the track and was gaining at the end. Arrah Gowan was used up in the early racing, but held on gamely to the final sixteenth, when he weakened. His race was a good one. Time, 24, 48, 1:14.
Winner--Ch. g. by Rancocas--Heeley (trained by J. H. Brannan).
Went to post at 3:29. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Sad Sam is a quick breaker, obtained a winning advantage at the start, forced a terrific pace and was easing up right at the end. Irene Lindsey broke slowly, was under an unavailing drive from the start to get up and, tiring at the end, was all out to beat Princess Titania. The latter made a wide stretch turn and closed up very strongly. Meehanus, seriously interfered with at the half, could never get up. Bard Burns was outclassed.
Scratched--36454 The Pride, 107; 36421 Stuyve, 105.
Sad Sam, show, 1 to 3. Irene Lindsey, show, out. Princess Titania, show, evens.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Alloway, Milton Young's latest importation for stud services, has arrived at Lexington, Ky., and will make his first season in Kentucky at McGrathiana Stud in 1903. Alloway is by Springfield—Lady Morgan, by Thormanby, and a full brother to Morganette, dam of Galtee More, winner of the 2,000 Guineas, Derby and St. Leger, sold to the Austrian government for $125,000. Morganette is also the dam of Ard Patrick, winner of the English Derby this year. Alloway won the Prince of Wales Stakes at Ascot, the Great Yorkshire Handicap and other races in England. Fourteen stallions will stand at McGrathiana Stud next season.

Maj. F. A. Daingerfield, manager of the Castleton Stud, Lexington, Ky., on account of Voter being an imported horse selected American mares to breed to him last spring. Cinderella, dam of Musical Slipper, is the only English mare bred to him. But the Metropolitan Handicap winner has been bred to a rare lot of American bred stud matrons, among them being Belle of Maywood, dam of Tenny and Olympian; Ella T., dam of Banquet and Tea Tray; Shipmate, dam of First Mate; Maurine, dam of Maurice and Port Royal; Handmaid, by Hanover—Frederick's Pride, by Frederick the Great; Queenstown, dam of Ivernia and sister to Kingston; Gingham, by Domino—Calico, by Hampton; Pink Domino, by Domino—Belle Rose, by Beadesert. He was also mated to several other young daughters of Domino which met with accidents in training and never raced, and were bred for the first time last spring. Voter is quite a favorite with visitors at Castleton. He has not the kingly bearing of the mighty Commando or the sensational Disguise II., but in the opinion of all good judges will prove his worth in the stud.

J. B. Haggin made a great showing this year in breeding two-year-old winners at his Rancho de Paso and Elmdorf studs. He not only bred Savable, the largest winning two-year-old of the year, but he also bred Irish Lad, which stands second among the money-winning two-year-olds of 1902. He bred fifty-five two-year-old winners, and, besides Savable and Irish Lad, fourteen of these were stake winners, namely, Artvis, Golden Maxim, Girdle, Fitzbrillar, Gold Van, Hurstbourne, Charles Elwood, Sir Voorhies, Africander, Shooting Star, Allan, Mary Lavana, Parisienne and Roxboro. In the sire of these winners, Golden Garter leads with nine winners to his credit. This horse, which has taken such a commanding position this year among Haggin's great stallions, is a half brother to the Derby winner, Sainfoin, being by the Derby winner

Bend 'Or—Sanda, by Wenlock, winner of the St. Leger.

J. S. Campbell, who has just returned from abroad, says the principal trouble American horse owners and trainers have to contend against in England and France is the result of operations of "touts" and "sure thing" men, who have posed as representatives of this country on the turf. Another source of more or less scandal, he says, is that the Americans engaged in training and racing abroad appear to be jealous of one another and express personal opinions that are not complimentary. While in Paris he conversed with several persons well informed on turf matters about the cases of Johnny Reiff and Milton Henry. The information he obtained caused him to believe Reiff would be reinstated and that Henry's case had a different aspect.

That good horse, Warranted, which was expected to run in the two long races at Benning this week, put his foot in a hole several days ago while being galloped after the races were over and pulled up almost broken down. His off fore leg is in bad shape, so bad that Tom Mannix says he would be lucky to patch him up for New Orleans late in that meeting. This removes one of the prominent candidates for the Washington Cup and Maximum Stakes. Warranted won one of these races last year, and was expected to make a bold bid this time.

Jockey Patsy Freeman, who has been riding for several seasons in France and who has been visiting relatives at Lexington, Ky., for a week past, will spend the winter in California and return to France early next spring. He may take a few mounts in San Francisco this winter, though, he says, he has had none too good luck in America in recent years, and for fear he might be picked out for a mark and be set down by the judges, which would jeopardize his chances abroad, he will appear very little in the saddle on the coast, taking only mounts on good horses in stake races.

Jockey Jesse Mathews will not be seen in the saddle this winter. He has not recovered from the throat ailment that bothered him in the latter part of the racing here, and which laid him up for the greater part of the Latonia meeting. His physician has ordered him not to take any chances this winter and says that he will be entirely cured when next spring rolls around. Mathews and his bride of a month have been stopping in Cincinnati ever since his marriage and, barring a few weeks at the springs, he will be there all winter.
